Biographies

Eric Danner joined Troop 22 in March 1983. He quickly advanced to First Class before dropping out in 1985. When Eric returned to the troop 2 years later he had a new enthusiasm. Elected Rattlesnake Patrol Leader in 1987 Eric led the patrol of young scouts to win the 1988 Klondike Derby. Eric has worked on three Junior Leader Orientation Workshops for the Sunrise district, once as a Senior Patrol Leader. While an Assistant Senior Patrol Leader Eric collected clothing, bedding and monetary contributions for the Templum House Women's Shelter for his Eagle project. In the summer of 1989 Eric went to Philmont as an adult leader for the Cleveland Council contingent. Eric is a graduate of Hawken School and is a Sophomore at Vassar College in Poughkeepsie, New York.

Matthew Lindley joined Troop 22 in September 1982 after two years in Pack 11. During his tenure in the troop, Matt served as Assistant Patrol Leader and Patrol Leader of the Rattlesnake Patrol. Matt spent three years as Senior Patrol Leader, earning the National Leadership Award. He was quartermaster for a year and is now an Assistant Scoutmaster. Matt's leadership has extended beyond the troop. He has served on staff for many Sunrise District Junior Leader Orientation Workshops as well as for Scoutmaster training. Matt graduated Summa Cum Laude from Gilmour Academy in 1989, where he was active in student government and varsity soccer. Matt also led Gilmour's Academic Challenge team, which captured back-to-back state titles and ninth place in the 1989 national championships. Matt is currently a sophomore at Rice University in Houston, Texas, where he is studying history and political science.
